A Compilation of Quotes from the Works of Alice Bailey, Helena Roerich, and Lucille Cedercrans

Author: Alice Bailey, Helena Roerich, Lucille Cedercrans

About: This is an unpublished compilation of quotes from the authors listed above on the theme of Transmutation. In this compilation transmutation is taken as the process of re-patterning emotions and thoughts living in the subconscious life and presenting themselves primarily as reactions. Until one begins to see them as reactive patterns, they exist as our identity: "That's just the way I am." They are patterns established over many lifetimes and can be quite troublesome until they are recognized for what they are. This compilation gives a perspective on them, helps one to recognize them, and hopefully hone our skills in the art of transmuting them.

Availability: Unpublished, available through a trained teacher.

Course Status: We are not facilitating this course at this time. If you are particularly interested in this course, please contact us by using the email form on the Contact page.

Excerpt:

The study of this Science of Applied Purification is one which is engrossing the attention of all the ashrams at this time; disciples in the first ray ashram, in the second ray ashram and in the seventh ray ashram are peculiarly active along these lines, for the destruction of evil is the work of the first ray, and in so destroying its effects purity is achieved; the fostering of good then becomes possible and is the work of the second ray, of the Builders; and the bringing of spiritual energy into contact with substance, and consequently with matter, is the unique work of the seventh ray because it is now in manifestation. The rays which are active and in manifestation at this time and in this cycle are there in conformity to the Plan and in preparation for the externalisation of the Hierarchy and the reappearance of the Christ. These rays are particularly involved, and therefore the initiates and the disciples in the ashrams of the Masters are also particularly implicated.

The Science of Applied Purification is also the Science of Applied Energy, with the specific objective in view of "eliminating the undesirable and that which hinders the entrance of the light, and thus providing space and entry for the desired, for the good, the beautiful and the true". In the application of this science there is of course no infringement of the human prerogative of free will. This ancient science is concerned primarily with the purification and with the redemption of matter, and it is entirely in the hands of human beings, under the direction of the Hierarchy. This direction may be consciously or unconsciously registered. The Science of Redemption (to which I have several times earlier referred) is in reality the applied art of esotericism and of spiritual living which is already being taught to mankind; they are steadily learning to redeem the bodies through which they function. It is in reality the art or science of relationship between the Life and the lives, as HPB expresses it.

As far as the other kingdoms in nature are concerned, the purification is applied by the Hierarchy, through the medium of human beings, and this can be seen in process at this time. This present activity, carried on now largely unconsciously, will be redoubled and carried forward consciously by trained initiates and disciples, working through and with aspirants. It is this that is now being studied in the various hierarchical ashrams, and when applied—after 1975—will bring about great and important changes in world living.
